Dear [REDACTED]

With reference to your letter of 14 May 1952, we believe that the material in question will be of benefit to functions of both this Agency and your Board and that it is proper for us to undertake their procurement.

25X1A

Inasmuch as the negotiation of these materials will have to be on the personal basis, it would seem appropriate to authorize [REDACTED] to act in our behalf. I have therefore authorized an advance in the amount of [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] for which he will be held accountable by us.

25X1A

Satisfactory accounting will consist of reports of purchase of the specified material, which should be approved by a member of your staff, presumably [REDACTED] or his successor, and the return of any unexpended amount to this Agency.

25X1A

You may be sure that the material will at all times be available for such utilization as you may require.

Sincerely yours,

/s/
WALTER H. ROLF
